HOW MUCH MONEY AMERICANS HAVE

Uncle Sam's Big Gun Factory Products. News From Central American Revolutionists-Fiscal Figures-New Surgeon General Takes Hold-A Land Decision

WASHINGTON, June 3.-The department Washington, June 3.—The department of state has been informed by the consul at Tegueigalpa that the leaders of the revolutionists have all left the country with the exception of General Terencio Sierra, who with a band of about 150 men is still in the department of Paraiso, near the Nicaraguan border. General Sierra changes his position almost daily, and hides himself in the mountain fastnesses, so that it is very difficult for the government forces to attack him. Both Policarpo and Manuel Bonilla have been wounded, the former having had his arm amputated and is reported to have gangrene. Unless some new and unexpected developments happen, the present revolution in Honduras is at an end.

Cherokee Bonds Not Sold.

Cherokee Bonds Not Sold.

WASHINGTON, June 3.—The Cherokee Indians have not yet negotiated their six million bonds, and the committee having the matter in charge will probably return home without doing so. They will not sell the bonds below par and are not especially anxious whether they sell or not. They will receive 4 per cent interest annually from the government, which would have gone to the bondholders had the bonds been placed. The only reuson for selling at all was to close up the transaction at one time. Now as the payments become due the money will be divided pro rata among those entitled to it.

Indian Accounts Audited.

Indian Accounts Audited.

WASHINGTON, June 3.—The accounting officers of the treasury have audited the accounts for the payment to the Choctaw and Chickasaw Indians of the $3,000,000 due them for the Cheyenne and Arapahoe lands ceded to the government, and requisitions on the United States treasurer were approved by the secretary of the interior which concludes all the formalities necessary for the payment of the money. One-third of this amount goes to the Chickasaws.

STARTLING REPORT.

Story of the Hypothecation of Haif a Mil-

New York, June 3.—Wall street was somewhat startled by a report that $500,000 in unissued bonds of the city of Austin, Tex., had been hypothecated with the National City bank of this city by some unknown person.

tional City bank of this city by some unknown person.

The facts of the matter are that the city of Austin some time ago built a dam to obtain water power, and on the work voted $1,400,000 worth of bonds, and of this amount $100,000 worth have been issued. Last October, on a call for bids, Edward Morton, a broker at 53 Broadway, took the remaining $500,000 worth at par. 1885 5 per remaining $500,000 worth at par. 1885 5 per remaining $500,000 worth at par, less 5 per cent., delivered in New York and legally assured. The bonds were sent the City bank here and they are in this bank's bank here and they are in this bank a vaults yet.

The discovery was made on account of a suit started to contest their legality. This suit was settled in favor of the issue, but a second suit is now pending and the bonds remain tied up until it is decided. That is the whole story.

Steel Workers Strike at Pittsburg.

PITTSBURG, June 3.—The first strike of the year in the iron and steel circles was inaugurated at the Wayne iron works of inaugurated at the Wayne iron works of Brown & Co. There are 66 men affected. The strike is the first of the kind in the history of the Amalgamated association, involving a point that may prove a factor in the future settlement of wage scales. Saturday last the day crew had to wait two and a half hours on a heat, which they finally worked and then went home. Monday morning they were discharged. It is very seldom that a wait of more than one hour is tolerated. The differences have been the subject of conference, and an amicable arrangement of the matter will likely be effected. likely be effected.
